Professional Summary

Hidehiro Utsumi has been highly acclaimed internationally, such as by being selected for many years as one of the leading lawyers in Japan in Chambers Global, Chambers Asia Pacific, The Legal 500, and Best Lawyers.

Major Cases Handled

Based on his legal, taxation and accounting experience, he can formulate comprehensive strategies and review structuring arrangements with the assistance of a network of offices that expands across multiple jurisdictions. The major deals in which he has been involved include the following:

- Advised Vodafone as a lead partner on the M&A, tax and financing aspects of its JPY1.8 trillion sale of its Japanese subsidiary, Vodafone K.K., which was the largest LBO and corporate takeover in Japan.
- Advised SMBC (Sumitomo Mitsui Banking Corporation) as the lead partner on its JPY100 billion investments in Barclays PLC.
- Advised PricewaterhouseCoopers on its reform at its Japan network firm ChuoAoyama and establishing new member firm PricewaterhouseCoopers Aarata.
- Represented many companies and advised public agencies as the lead partner in large-scale anti-dumping matters.
- Involved in various projects related to pharmaceutical and bio-related regulations.
- Responding to various scandals, preparing reports, and being involved in third-party committees.
